FREED HER LOVER.
Cuts Her Hair and Smuggles Tools to Her Sweetheart.

Last week William Burns and Sam May, two handsome but wayward youths of good families, were incarcerated in the Vanceburg Jail, charged with stoning the residence of Mrs. Mary Ross, at Farms, one mile above that city. William Burns had a pretty little sweetheart of 16, living at Buena Vista, O., named Maggie Bishop. Maggie vowed her lover should be released. She clipped her long raven locks, donned a suit of boy's clothes, and crossed the river. She went to the Jail without attracting any attention, as curious people are constantly visiting the Jail. The girl succeeded in slipping to her lover a small hatchet, a file and a case-knife. With these simple tools the bad boys sawed their way to liberty and escaped to the Ohio side, where they screamed back defiance at the Sheriff. Maggie was arrested, and she is now in a cell dressed in the garb of her sex. Flannel Night Shirts made to order at Nelson's.

The Ladies' Safe Absorber—Not a Drop Can Escape It.
It is absolutely reliable, easily adjusted and does not become misplaced. It can be worn when desired by special circumstances without the knowledge of another. It is simple to use and inspires confidence to the women using it. It is reliable and scientifically made and does not injure the health. It is medicated with one of the best antiseptics which gives it power to prevent and destroy putrefaction or what is the same thing, the bacteria upon which putrefaction depends. We guarantee "The Ladies' Safe Absorber." It will be sent securely sealed in plain wrapper, upon receipt of the price, 50 cents, or three for $1, which we guarantee to last for one year, with full directions. No circulars.

BOOTS! BOOTS!

Boots at One-Half Price.
Again we come to the front—this time with Boots. Our firm has shipped us 150 cases Boots at one-half their regular price. We will place them on sale Saturday, November 2, at a slaughtered price. We defy competition on these Boots, and can save you from 75 cents to $2 on every pair you buy. This is no blizzard, but facts. They are all our own make, and we guarantee every pair.

Progress - Shoe - Store,
HINER'S OLD STAND.

THE FOOTBALL CHORUS.
Line up, pass her back, keep the ends in check;
When the umpire's back is turned slug 'em to the neck.
Paste a fellow when he's down, grind him with your boot;
Break his head if necessary—scoot, brothers, scoot.
Tackle 'em below the knee, gouge 'em in the eye;
Kick 'em in the abdomen and leave 'em there to die.
Hear your Alma Mater's voice rise above the din:
"Anything to win, boys, anything to win!"
Never mind a rib or two, smash a collar bone;
Sweeter than the sweetest music is a dying groan.
Mother sits up in the stand anxious for her son;
She won't recognize her baby after we have done.
Sing him once again for luck, break his Grecian nose;
Make him lose an ear or two, amputate his toes.
Don't forget our motto, boys, do your level best.
Now, for God and country, boys, and—well, you know the rest.
Just another rally, boys, give it to 'em hot;
Lay 'em out upon the award just as soon as not;
See, we're almost over now, yonder is the goal!
Kill him, if you must, and Lord have mercy on his soul.

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-Four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.
White streamer—FAIR;
Blue—RAIN or SNOW;
With Black ABOVE—"WILL" WARMER grow.
If Black's BENEATH—"COLDER" will be;
Unless Black's shows—no change we'll see.
The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 8 o'clock to-morrow evening.

We respectfully invite the comparison of THE LEDGER with any other daily newspaper in all Northeastern Kentucky. If any one can find a daily paper printed in the Ninth Congressional District that has a Larger Circulation, or More Original Reading Matter, we will take pleasure in presenting him with a year's subscription to THE LEDGER. And this paper is furnished at same price as inferior ones.

For Sale!
A Combination Bicycle, for either lady or gentleman; new, and just as it came from the factory; cheap for cash. Apply at this office, where it may be seen.

It will not cure everything. It is not claimed that it will cure but one complaint, that is, dyspepsia. We cannot say that it will cure every case of dyspepsia, but it will cure a large majority of them. Such cases as are adapted to its use will derive immediate benefit. One small bottle will be sufficient to test it.

The Shaker Digestive Cordial is especially adapted for emaciated or elderly people whose food does them but little or no good because it is not digested. The Cordial contains an artificially-digested food and is a digester of food happily combined. Read one of the little books which your druggist is now giving away and learn of this wonderful remedy.

A really palatable Castor Oil can now be had under the name of Laxol.

The Monk.
By MATTHEW G. LEWIS, (MONK LEWIS.)
Mr. Lewis was a member of the British Parliament, and his book became so popular in England a hundred years ago that it gained for him the title of "Monk Lewis."
It is a fine piece of classic composition, and after being out of print for many years it has been republished from the original text.
It is far superior to "Maria Monk" and books of that character.

The Only One To Stand the Test.

Rev. William Copp, whose father was a physician for over fifty years, in New Jersey, and who himself spent many years preparing for the practice of medicine, but subsequently entered the ministry of the M. E. Church, writes: "I am glad to testify that I have had analyzed all the sarsaparilla preparations known in the trade, but AYER'S is the only one of them that I could recommend as a blood-purifier. I have given away hundreds of bottles of it, as I consider it the safest as well as the best to be had."—Wm. Copp, Pastor M. E. Church, Jackson, Minn.
